

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

A new and distinct cultivar of New Guinea Impatiens plant named 'Balcebpiel' substantially as herein shown and described, which:

- 5
1. Exhibits large round pink-colored flowers,
 2. Forms medium green-colored foliage,
 3. Exhibits a good basal branching character, and
 4. Exhibits a medium upright, mounded growth habit.